

Fun Days with Wild at Art

School's out on Friday and what are the kids going to do? The Moscow Parks & Recreation and Joan Alexander from Wild at Art are paring up to offer Fun Days with Wild at Art for your kids. Activities for days that school is out are listed below. Students need to bring their own lunch.

ONE DAY PROGRAMS

January 27 - Watcha-ma-call-it Cardboard Car Construction -

In teams of 2 - 4, kids will create a WATCHA-MA-CALL-IT automobile that will exceed all expectations of future car building, using only cardboard, duct tape, screws and hand held screwdrivers. In teams, the kids will discuss design, purpose, what's special and unique about their automobile, and construction ideas. Planned drawings will be required before construction begins.

February 17 – Wild and Crazy Art

A variety of art projects with materials you would never think to make art from. - Pour art, moss art, and more

April 2 – “Rock” Stars

This is not your average everyday kind of Pet Rock activity. These creatures will stand out among the pet rocks of the world. In the old days, a pet rock was merely a rock. Our rocks will be dressed to the hilt! Using every kind of art material you can imagine we will be coiffing, dressing and primping to create the greatest “ROCKSTARS” ever.

TWO DAY PROGRAM

May 3 & 4 – Green it!!

Take a field trip to the recycling center and invite Andy Boyd to us to talk to us about what recycling means and what we can do with recycled materials?

Students will research various things that are made out of recycled materials, especially art. They will return to Eggan to make paper. Students will also do newspaper fashion, plastic bag art, weavings, paper beads, and whatever else you can do with various recycled materials that you've never thought of before??
